General Announcements

We are still looking for people to stuff bags for the Santa Float today in the cafeteria right after school. We also need people to go to the nursing home for bowling tomorrow from 3 to 4. Sign up on the Guidance window.

Student Council and the Positivity Project are hosting a study night for the upcoming finals this Thursday in the WHS cafeteria from 3:00 to 4:30 p.m. and 5:00 to 6:30 p.m. There will be staff and peer tutors available to help with a range of subjects.

Student Council will be selling candy grams today through Thursday at lunch. They are 50 cents each and come with Jolly Ranchers. They will be delivered Friday by Santa and his elf assistant.

Seniors: Stop by the table outside of the cafeteria on Wednesday during 6th hour lunch. You will need to verify the spelling of your name for your diploma.

The Spanish tutoring session today from 3-4pm will be specifically for Spanish 1 students who would like extra help preparing for the semester exam. It will be held in E208 with Señora Brown. All Spanish 1 students are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Scholar bowl members need to have their waiver in and dues paid in order to compete in today's match. Please get them turned in. Don't forget to get out at the bus bell.

The WHS Speech Team kept its' streak of top three finishes alive this past weekend with a 2nd place finish at our home tournament. Liam Desai in Extemporaneous Speaking, Allison Wagner in Poetry, and Reagan Posey in Dramatic interpretation all took the honors of tournament runner-up. Congrats to JV tournament champions Jordyn Kretchmer in Oratorical Declamation and Maddie Weatherfield in Original Oratory. Varsity Tournament champions were Brittany Gaines in Impromptu Speaking, Ronda Tannous in Humorous Interpretation, and TJ Davidson in Informative speaking. Congrats Team!

Construction Club members need to come to the Activity Period meeting tomorrow to get their donuts.

Next Monday is the last day for Early Bird Personal Fitness. You must have completed 57 workouts by 7:35 that day. Students that were exempt during the 1st Quarter must have 30 workouts completed by 7:35 that day. See Mr. Mason if you have any questions.
