General Announcements

Science tutoring will be in Mrs. Breithaupt's room today and in Mrs. Durako's room on Wednesday. Come in and get some help preparing for your final exams.

All Spanish 2 students are welcome and encouraged to attend the exam prep session that will be held on Tuesday after school from 3-4 in Señora Brown's room - E208.

Attention Diversity Club Members- we are having our Christmas party this Thursday after finals, from 11:05 until 3:00 in Ms. Kline's room E205. We will have movies and snacks. Please feel free, to bring a snack to share. See you there!

Congratulations to the WHS Speech Team for finishing 4th out of 25 teams this past Saturday at Olympia High school. Top finishers include Emma Kramer and Brittany Gaines in Radio Speaking, Lindsey Merritt and Kate Kennedy in Informative. JV tournament champions are Jordyn Kretchmer in Oratorical Declamation and the dynamic duo of Chuck Davidson and Grant Barker in Humorous Duet Acting. Special congratulations to Ronda Tannous earning tournament champion honors in both Humorous Interpretation and Original Comedy.

Guidance

The YMCA is looking for 1-2 people, sixteen years or older, to be scorekeepers on Saturdays for the basketball leagues this winter as well as monitoring basketball practices at Rogers Elementary a couple hours during the week. Interested applicants should come to Guidance for information.

2018-19 Registration is now open! All freshman, sophomores and juniors have the ability to select classes online until December 21st. Please check your student email for instructions on how to complete this process.

Athletics

Congratulations to the cheerleaders for walking away with hardware from both competitions this weekend! The ladies placed first in the medium varsity and stunt group divisions at the Highland Invitational on Saturday. Sunday, the squad took 1st as a stunt group and 3rd as a team in Edwardsville. The team travels to Springfield on January 6th to compete in the ICCA Championships.

On Thursday the undefeated Raging Bulldogs hockey team will take on Columbia at 7:30 pm in Granite City. Kick off Christmas Break with two great things, hockey and a defeat of Columbia!

Reminder to girls soccer players to turn in their practice jersey money before school lets out for Christmas break.
