General Announcements

The WHITE team scored a win at last Friday night's home boys basketball game. Their team earned the most points by attending the game and participating in the theme for the night. Way to go! And the White team also nudged the Orange team by ONE student to claim the win for most students participating in the Saturday Scholars event on Criminal Profiling last weekend! Congrats!

Construction 1 Pizza Party will be held on Thursday during 5th and 6th hour lunches.

Attention Saturday Scholars, please sign up on the door of room D209 whether or not you can attend this week's lecture over Hiking the Appalachian Trail by Thursday. There is a waiting list! Thank you!

This Friday night we need fans in the stands for the home boys basketball game against Mascoutah! The theme is 'whiteout', so dress yourself from head to toe in all things white!

SAFE wants you to know that February is Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month. Only 33% of teens who were in a violent relationship ever told anyone about the abuse. Some warning signs of abuse include:
 Extreme jealousy or insecurity, constant put downs about you and people you care about, and getting too serious about the relationship too quick.
